

Who is Ebenezer?

Ebenezer is Harrison, the groundsman, who knows each and every student by name. He knows where they all live, too! He keeps the school running and has begun teaching families about "Farming God's Way".

Ebenezer is Maya who came to Ebenezer straight from college. She learns along with her students, and her creativity in teaching and obviously love for the students inspires the staff to Ebenezer is Rueben from grade 6. He is a serious child and the son of our denomination's moderator. He, too, is thankful to be able to live at home and attend Ebenezer where his father works and lives.

Ebenezer is Stella who came to Ebenezer looking for a cleaning job. Now an assistant, her diligence in her work and love for Ebenezer shine brightly through the days.

Ebenezer is Chimwemwe, a passionate child, whose mother is on the board. Both parents work in Nkhoma, thankful that their daughter can get a good education and still live at home.

Ebenezer is Solanje and her brother Fabrice. Their parents are business owners with a shop in the market. They have been at Ebenezer since it opened, thankful that Ebenezer opens its doors to all backgrounds.

Ebenezer is Susan, from western Carolina who came to Ebenezer 2 years ago. Her goals are to encourage and support staff as they work to meet the needs of all learner and to work with parent to help them reach sustainability in agriculture.

Ebenezer is Desmond who came to Ebenezer in 2014 as a grade 3 student. Behind in his studies, his teachers have been working with his parents so they can help him at home to catch up.

Who is Ebenezer?

Ebenezer is Chrissi who grew up in Malawi then spent ten years in South Africa where she and her son could both receive education. Chrissi has brought new perspectives and ideas to our school. Her wisdom sets her apart as a leader for the teachers and students.

Ebenezer is Ellen from grade 4. Her feet were amputated when she was about 5, but that wouldn't stop her! She rides a bike to school now, and helps to take care of her great aunt whom she lives with.

Ebenezer is Heather who felt a strong calling from God to leave her family and grown daughters in South Africa to work as principal. Her experience teaching and leading have helped Ebenezer take a leap in professionalism and management.

Ebenezer is Mattia and Mira, our volunteers from Germany. Right out of high school, two volunteers come each year. Their spirit, enthusiasm and love for the children is infectious as they help with "specials". This is a special place where learning and discernment are encouraged.

Ebenezer is Patience who was one of the first teachers at Ebenezer. At 32, she completed high school. Currently studying for a diploma in early childhood, all anticipate her return, full of ideas, knowledge and love for her home and school.

Ebenezer is Ernest from grade 4. He rides a bike with his friend Dennis in grade 5, 20 minutes or more to get to school each day, and in the summer, both took advantage of the library being open, wearing their uniforms proudly.

Ebenezer is Mike whose learning abilities puzzle all the staff. Always on the go, and always forgetting, it is hard NOT to love his smile and the twinkle in his eye.

Ebenezer is "the triplets", Tadala, Takondwa, and Tamanda. Born at just about 2lbs each, they were adopted by two different nurses in Nkhoma. Now 3 years old, they love coming to Ebenezer today, where their parents know they are getting a quality education in a loving environment.

